LIFE

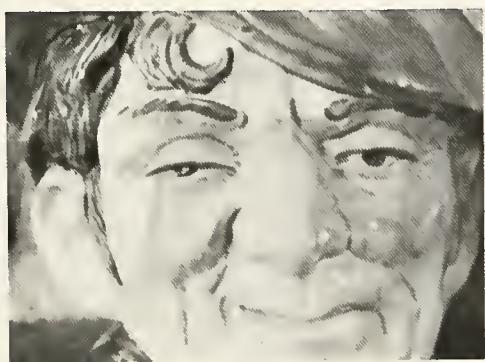

Looking from the outside in,
It isn't easy, it's kinda rough
So much to cover, so little time
So many different interests,
So many more to please
I think it's done,

IT'S YOURS TO KEEP!

Grasp it, unfold it,
Really look deep. You're there,
With the rest.
A school's not made of bricks,
It's made of people.

ME AND YOU

If I were you and you were me,
Oh, what differences we would see.
I'd see me as I look,
And then read my faults like a book.
You'd see you as you are,
And seeing us, we'd both go far.
Your hands are dirty, my hair's a mess,
My pants need cleaning, I must confess.
And after we're through,
And I am me and you are you,
We'll look at each other from a different point of view.

ORGANIZATIONS

VIGILANTE

As editor, my soul was replenished many atime by the staff and the advisor of this years book. Thank God, Mrs. Johnston our advisor, had broad shoulders. We all used them. The staff put the ideas and plans for the book on paper. Jeff Schuller, assistant editor, put out the artwork and a large percentage of the moral support. The financial end was handled well by Scott Pendergast, the only other returning veteran to the staff. Loree Giles did the senior section, Terry Stewart, the sports. Your junior section was the work of Cheri Sams, who always came through with a bit of humor. Copy Editors Laurie Copenhaver, Debbie Tobias, and Mary Tucci finished the organization section. Photography was the work of; seniors Mark Nicholson and Don Archibald; juniors Allen Hulett and Louie Mudd. Sunhaven was tied with us by way of Ed LaCass, of Sunhaven. He did the special effect photography that gave the finishing touch to the book.

NUGGET

The Nugget staff of '71-'72 was dedicated to the betterment of the Nugget. They tried and tried and tried...and they did it. Under the leadership of Cathy Moody, editor; Nancy Mazurek, editorial-page-editor; and Pete Johnson, sports editor, great things were accomplished. Late night meetings were called for paste-ups and dummying with regulars Laurie Copenhaver, circulation manager; and Miss Susan Barber, advisor, helping. Susan Leaphart and Pat Rogers were co-feature-editors who wrote and wrote and wrote. Susan Gunn took care of the business end. It seems everyone else in the school was a reporter. According to the daily bulletin, the motto of the Nugget was "It's good for you."

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A BENGAL

Our Bengal Tiger really means,
More than a victory and more than a team.
He stands for the SPIRIT of Helena High,
And gives us incentive to really try.

From sports to speech,
To people that teach,
We feel Bengal Pride,
Way down deep inside.

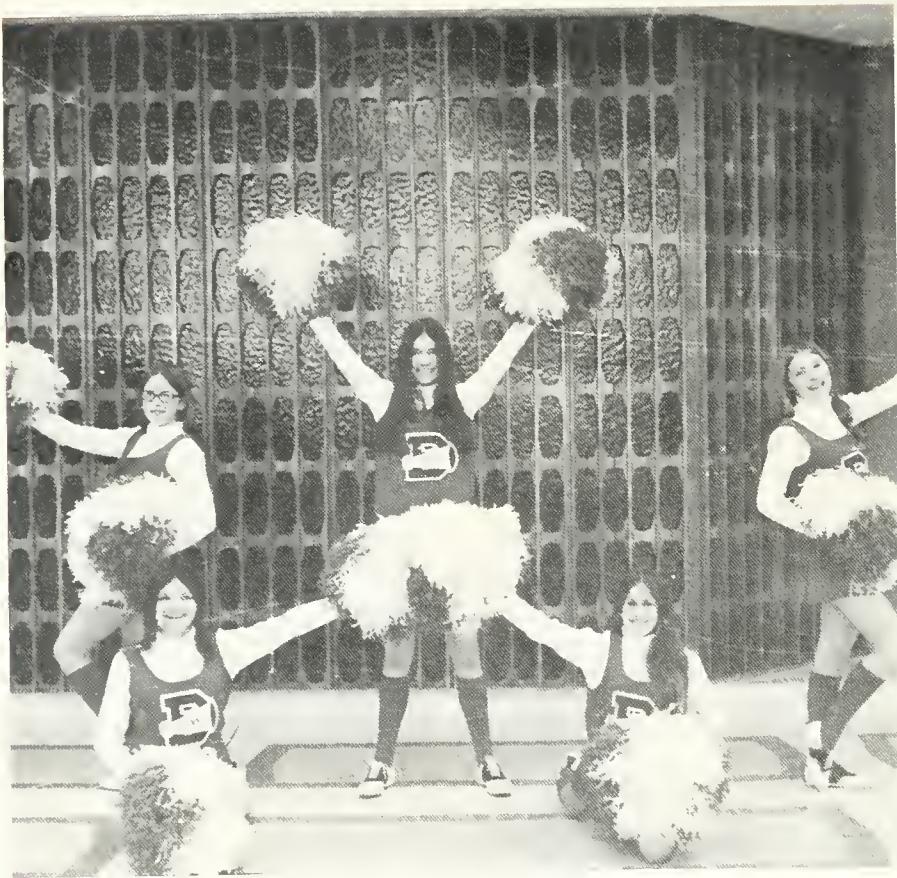

To really feel that Bengal Pride,
Get involved to keep it alive,
Contribute yourself is what you should do,
'Cause Helena High depends on you.

Think about what we've said today,
Give yourself reason to feel this way.
So if you think you've got BENGAL SPIRIT,
Stand up and yell BENGALS, and let everyone hear it.
